CHURCH TRANSFORMATION TEAM

transforming churches to become agents of transformation

For churches to be agents of God's transforming grace for their communities, congregations often require transformation.

Plowpoint Church Transformation Teams are here to help!

⇒ How can the Church Transformation Team help my church?

The Church Transformation Teams help you assess and offer what you need to move forward effectively and faithfully in ministry.

Services provided by the teams include:

- Longing to Belong: conflict transformation
- Stepping in the Stream: strategic visioning
- Moving from Good Things to God-things: combined conflict transformation and strategic visioning
- Checking Vital Signs: assessing local church potential
- Staff Development Retreats based on the needs of your church staff
- Leadership/Ministry Team Retreats based on the needs of your leadership
- Transitional Leadership Coaching
- Situational Leadership Coaching

⇒ Who is on the Church Transformation Teams?

Church Transformation Team members are unpaid servants, both clergy and laity, who have received fifty hours of training by Plowpoint.

→ How long does the Team work with my church?

The Teams are equipped to journey with a congregation through various phases of ministry, offering services based on your particular needs and circumstances. Length of services range from one day retreats to several months.

→ How much does it cost my church?

To best ensure that the services are accessible and affordable to any and all churches, the costs have been minimized through the use of called, committed and trained unpaid servants. Costs are based on mileage reimbursement, materials, and associated team costs and are often less than $500.

→ Who is Plowpoint?

Plowpoint is an extension ministry of the United Methodist Church and a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization serving over 600 churches including 12 different denominations and 14 conferences of the United Methodist Church across the United States and in West Africa.

→ I am interested in serving on a Church Transformation Team. What do I do next?

Laitly and clergy interested in serving on a Plowpoint Church Transformation Team should contact their district superintendent to learn about the formation of teams in your area.

→ My church needs the services of a Church Transformation Team? What do we do?

Call your district superintendent or contact Plowpoint at 336.226.0282 or beth@plowpoint.org.
